The Final Performance

The “final” performance is a recital of five pieces that are played one after the other. The performance should be “public” and have a larger audience base of at least ten people. If you need help with this I can give you lots of ideas!

Also, you get to decide what you want to play!

Are you ready?

Repertoire: list in order you wish to perform	Memory?	Stage Presence	Know the story of the song	Performance ready
2.
3.
4.
5.

Checklist:

Program should have (in this order):	check
Short bio about yourself - picture is optional
Name of piece on the left side, composer listed on the right side
Write a description and/or fact under each piece/composer line.
Invitations should include:
Description of what they are being invited to
Date of performance
Location
Time
Other:
Decide on the location of your performance - teacher can help with this.
Choose the outfit you are going to wear
Practice in the shoes you are going to wear for your performance
Give a practice performance for your family
Have copies of your program for audience
Have copies of your music on hand
